Hello Parents,

I hope you all are healthy and safe. Here is a daily schedule you can print out to keep track of and organize what work your child/children complete each day. You can also record questions for the teacher. This is completely optional and for your use only! Please let me know if there is anything else you need, and I will be happy to help.

Kindly,

Mrs. Attanasio

jattanasio@bcps.org

Daily Schedule

| Subject          | Monday | Tuesday | Wednesday | Thursday | Friday |
|------------------|--------|---------|-----------|----------|--------|
| Math             |        |         |           |          |        |
| Watt             |        |         |           |          |        |
|                  |        |         |           |          |        |
|                  |        |         |           |          |        |
| ELA              |        |         |           |          |        |
|                  |        |         |           |          |        |
|                  |        |         |           |          |        |
|                  |        |         |           |          |        |
|                  |        |         |           |          |        |
| Writing          |        |         |           |          |        |
|                  |        |         |           |          |        |
|                  |        |         |           |          |        |
|                  |        |         |           |          |        |
| Specials/Content |        |         |           |          |        |
|                  |        |         |           |          |        |
|                  |        |         |           |          |        |

Questions: